

Erasmus trip

Our stay in Italy began on the 5th of May, but we travelled there on the 4th.

Every day we did something different, and we had lots of new experiences. For example, since we don't have drama subject in Hungary, I thought it was a great addition to some of the more boring subjects we all have to study. I also feel the same way about the yoga lesson we had. It was super fun and relaxing, and because it was on the second day of our stay, us Hungarians didn't quite know each other yet so it also made us a little closer to each other. After about the 3rd day we all laughed together all day and it was like we had known each other for weeks, maybe months. Meeting our Italian friends from April, when they were in our home country, was a really good feeling too. We all greeted each other and got closer throughout the week, while making friends from other classes too. The Greek students were also really kind to us, though I didn't talk to them as much as others. I think one of my favourite memories from our trip was definitely the day we spent in Turin. We had a really great time there and I loved every second of it.

Overall, our trip was awesome, we could practise our English and also our understanding and explaining skills. If I had the opportunity to, I'd definitely go again.
